A WOLF CALLED WANDER

The wolf star, brightest of all in the summer sky, shines over my home ground. I know every hidden lake and rocky ridge, but if my pack is not in the mountains, then it is no home to me. I feel a howl deep inside, but dare not let it out.

Swift lives with his pack in the mountains, until one day his family is killed. Alone and starving, Swift must make a choice: stay and try to eke out a desperate life on the borders of his old hunting grounds, or strike out and find a new place to call home. The journey Swift must go on is long and perilous – can he summon the courage to survive all by himself?

THE LAST ZOO

Perfect for fans of Douglas Adams and Neil Gaiman, The Last Zoo is a mind-bending story about the end of the world.

Pia lives in the world's last zoo: a place where the impossible is actually possible ever since scientists detonated a reality bomb in a bid to save the world. Weird and wondrous creatures have been dreamt into existence and are housed on ocean arks – unicorns, singing hippos, hummingdragons, genies . . . and angels, who might be the most important creations of all, because Earth needs a miracle to survive.

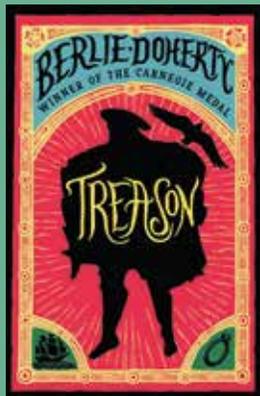

But one morning Pia makes a terrible discovery: the angels are missing. To find them, she will need to solve the riddle they left behind, make a pact with a devil, and take a perilous journey into the glitch, where nothing is what it seems . . .

NO FIXED ADDRESS

Felix Knutsson is nearly thirteen, lives with his mother and pet gerbil, and is brilliant at memorising trivia. So far, pretty normal. But Felix and his mom Astrid have a secret: they are living in a van.

Astrid promises it's only for a while until she finds a new job, and begs Felix not to breathe a word. So when Felix starts at a new school, he does his very best to hide it from his new friends. He makes a plan to turn his and Astrid's lives around: he's going to go on his favourite game show Who, What, Where, When and win the cash prize. All he needs is a little luck and a lot of brain power...

Susin Nielsen deftly combines humour, heartbreak, and hope in this moving story about the people who slip through the cracks in society.

'Relatable, moving and funny. Susin Nielsen is simply wonderful!' SARAH CROSSAN

RAYNE & DELILAH'S MIDNITE MATINEE

Josie and Delia are best friends and co-hosts on their own public access TV show, Midnite Matinee. They dress as vampires Rayne and Delilah, perform daft skits, and show the weekly so-bad-it's-good low-budget horror movie. But the end of senior year is coming, and with it big life decisions. Josie is torn between pursuing her television dreams in a new city or staying with her BFF, while Delia is searching for her dad, who walked out ten years ago.

A road-trip to ShiverCon, a convention for horror fans, may just have the answers the two need – but will Josie and Delia be prepared for life taking some seriously unexpected plot-twists?

'Anyone can break your heart – Jeff Zentner can also make you laugh out loud!' RAINBOW ROWELL

'I laughed, cried, and fell over-the-moon in love with Rayne & Delilah's Midnite Matinee!' JENNIFER NIVEN

COURTING DARKNESS

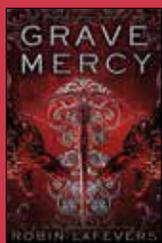

Sybella is searching the French court for fellow assassins from the convent of St Mortain, placed there years ago on under cover missions. But deadly royal politics are at play, and she must navigate them one step ahead of her enemies.

Genevieve has been under cover for so long that she has begun to lose faith in what she's supposed to be fighting for. When she discovers a hidden prisoner who may be of importance, she decides it's time to take matters into her own hands.

As these two worlds collide, the fate of the Duchess, Brittany, and everything Sybella and Genevieve have come to love hangs in the balance.

MONSTERS

When two 16-year-old stepsisters elope with a married man in 1814, the results are devastating – and the ripples can still be felt today.

This is the incredible story of Mary Shelley – radical, rebellious and entranced. It is the story of a young woman who defies tradition and society and who draws upon the monstrous elements of her own life to create the most memorable monster of them all.

Celebrating 200 years since the publication of Frankenstein, acclaimed author Sharon Dogar brings to life the passion, tragedy and forbidden love of its teenage author.

'A talented storyteller' PHILIP PULLMAN

'Sharon Dogar is a writer to watch'
MEG ROSSOFF

SHARON DOGAR lives in Oxford with her husband and three children. She loves writing, reading and daydreaming. She also works with adolescents as a psychotherapist. Her previous novel for young adults, Annexed, was shortlisted for the Costa Book Award.
